The Freshman Leadership Program (FLP) is a unique, two semester, individualized, intensive leadership development program for which academic credit is earned and a scholarship awarded.

FLP ACCENTS:
- Learning about the “tools” of leadership such as communication techniques, problem solving skills, and leadership style assessment
- The structure and personalities of Sul Ross’ administrative, student and faculty organizations
- Applied learning experiences in real life campus students leader situations
- How to become effectively involved at Sul Ross and the Alpine Community

FLP Emphasizes Participation in:
- Analyzing your strengths and weaknesses and improving your leadership skills
- Discussions, problem-solving, and hands-on activities
- Meeting and talking with Sul Ross and community leaders

FLP Exposes Participants to:
- Co-curricular activities
- Student organizations and clubs
- Administrative and faculty leaders and plans
- Campus and other resources of interest to student leaders
