University Mission
We are committed to developing graduates who will become leading professionals, valued neighbors, and responsible citizens.

We are dedicated to building and sustaining a community of optimal teaching and learning. We will accomplish this through the faithful efforts of our faculty and staff, and through the effective use of our facilities, technological and instructional resources, and student support services.

We are devoted to providing the highest quality undergraduate and graduate education to our students. We are likewise devoted to expanding the horizons of human understanding and creative achievement. Our research and creative efforts will advance knowledge, enrich teaching, and encourage professional growth.

We are privileged to operate in the distinctive environment of the Big Bend and Middle Rio Grande areas of Texas. Here we will serve to enrich the cultural, intellectual, social, and economic life of the region and its people.

To ensure the success of this mission, we will continually communicate and uphold the following goals.

Sul Ross State University Institutional Goals
- We will ensure that our students acquire a common set of intellectual, physical, and aesthetic experiences to foster a broad appreciation of the human experience.
- We will confirm that our graduates demonstrate the critical thinking, oral and written communication skills, and quantitative literacy required to become effective leaders.
- We will warrant that our graduates have the extensive knowledge needed to enter professions related to their studies, to achieve advanced levels of professional development, or to succeed in graduate programs.
- We will nurture each student's development of good citizenship.
- We will cultivate an environment of dignity and respect through which all members of Sul Ross State University will recognize and appreciate the value of diversity.
- We will foster within students a spirit of intellectual curiosity leading to independent, self-reflective, and purposeful life-long learning.

Notice
All of the information presented in this catalog is subject to change without prior knowledge. Such changes may be necessary in order to keep Sul Ross State University policies in compliance with state and federal laws as well as rules and regulations of the Texas State University System Board of Regents.

The University reserves the right to change policies, procedures, fees, rules, regulations, curricula, and other requirements without notice. Any changes will be made known to the administrative offices and the academic departments as they occur.

The catalog provides information about the academic of programs of Sul Ross State University-Rio Grande College to students, prospective students, and RGC faculty, staff, and students should refer to it for course descriptions, degree requirements, and procedures for admission. In addition, academic calendars, academic regulations, student services, undergraduate and graduate curriculum and a list of faculty and administrative officers are included in the publication. Every effort has been made to make the catalog as complete and accurate as possible and has been prepared using information available at the time of publication. The class schedule for each semester or summer session will provide details concerning registration and the courses to be offered.

The provisions of this catalog do not constitute a contract, express or implied, between the University and any applicant, student, faculty member, or any other person.

Equal Educational Opportunity Statement
No person shall be excluded from participation in, denied the benefits of, or be subject to discrimination under any program or activity sponsored or conducted by Sul Ross State University, on any basis prohibited by applicable law, including, but not limited to, race, color, national origin, religion, sex, age, or disability.

Student Grievance Procedures
Filing a grievance: Students who feel they have been discriminated against on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, age, or disability, may file a complaint with the appropriate University officer. Students attending classes in Del Rio, Eagle Pass, and Uvalde should contact the Director of Admissions, Records and Student Services in Eagle Pass, Texas (830-758-5006).

Students should discuss the complaint with the Director of Admissions, Records and Student Services within five class days of the occurrence of the action or condition giving rise to the complaint. Details should include the nature of the alleged discrimination, names of person(s) accused of discrimination, and relief sought. If possible, the complaint should be resolved in an informal manner at this level involving only the parties affected by the complaint. Within three class days of the original contact, the officer will inform the student of the action to be taken. The complete grievance procedure may be found in the Administrative Policy Manual, Chapter Four, Section 4.06. A copy of the manual is available in the Associate Provost/Dean’s office, and on line at http://www.sulross.edu/sites/default/files/sites/default/files/users/docs/student_svc/handbook-03.pdf (see page 13 of this link).

History of the University
Sul Ross State University
The University’s name honors Lawrence Sullivan “Sul” Ross, who was the son of a pioneer Waco, Texas, family and a popular soldier, governor, educator, and humanitarian. As a young man, Sul Ross attended Baylor University and graduated from Wesleyan University in Alabama. He participated in Indian campaigns in northern Texas and Indian Territory and served in the Texas Rangers with the rank of Captain. Upon the outbreak of the Civil War, Ross enlisted in the Confederate Army. He served with distinction and rose to the rank of Brigadier General. His Texas Brigade distinguished itself in 135 engagements during the war. After the war, Ross returned to Waco where he farmed and served as sheriff. In 1875 he was a member of the Texas Constitutional Convention, and in 1880 he was elected to the State Senate. Popular in the legislature and with Texans throughout the state, he was elected Governor in 1886 and re-elected in 1888. A strong supporter of public education, charitable institutions, and railroad regulation, Ross, upon leaving the governorship, was appointed president of Texas A&M College, a position he held at the time of his death in 1898.

The campus of Sul Ross State University in Alpine consists of approximately six hundred acres and a large number of buildings, including nine academic classroom buildings, the Bryan Wildenthal Memorial Library, the Museum of the Big Bend, the Pete P. Gallego Multipurpose Center, maintenance complex, the University Center, three residence halls, over one hundred apartments, and the President’s home. Football and track and field events are held in Jackson Field, and University activities of various types are held in the historic Kokernot Lodge adjacent to the outdoor summer theater of the Big Bend. The Everett E. Turner Range Animal Science Center includes an animal health clinic, a horse science center, meat processing facilities, San Antonio Livestock Exposition Equine Center, and modern, well-equipped laboratories. Intercollegiate athletics and cultural events including the summer theater at Kokernot Lodge highlight community activities. Sul Ross is the birthplace of the National Intercollegiate Rodeo Association, and the University annually sponsors NIRA rodeos. The University is a member of the National Collegiate Athletic Association and the American Southwest Conference participating in non-scholarship competitive sports events in baseball, basketball, football, softball, tennis, track, and volleyball in both men’s and women’s athletics.
Visitors to the Sul Ross State University campus in Alpine are always welcome. When touring the campus, persons may obtain information in the Office of Admissions and Records on the second floor of the Dolph Briscoe, Jr. Administration Building. Office hours are from 8 a.m.-5 p.m. Monday through Friday, except for holidays. The University telephone number is (432) 837-8011. The campus welcomes visitors and tours may be arranged by calling the University at (432) 837-8011 or through the Office of Admissions.

The Rio Grande College
Del Rio, Eagle Pass, and Uvalde

The Rio Grande College of Sul Ross State University, with sites at Del Rio, Eagle Pass, and Uvalde, serves thirteen counties in Southwest Texas. Sometimes referred to as the Southwest Texas Badlands, this area is known for its fields of purple sage and its Old West ambience. In this atmosphere, the College works continually towards higher standards of excellence in teaching and learning. The Rio Grande College is located on the Texas-Mexico border. The area includes two of the five highest-volume ports to our southern neighbor. The College offers junior, senior, and graduate coursework with programs in Humanities, Natural and Behavioral Sciences, Business, and Teacher Education at all sites.

Begun originally as the Sul Ross State University Study Center, the College was renamed the Uvalde Study Center in 1985, and again the Uvalde Center in 1989. Recognizing its service to the broad area of the Middle Rio Grande and Wintergarden regions of Texas, the Legislature renamed it Sul Ross State University Rio Grande College in 1995. Sul Ross and the Southwest are closely tied. The blending of the Hispanic and Anglo heritages makes Sul Ross-RGC perfect for anyone who seeks intellectual development with emphasis on the mutual culture that all Americans share. The student body consists of multi-cultural, traditional, and non-traditional students. Rio Grande College is one of the largest producers of Hispanic teachers in the state and Sul Ross State University is regularly recognized as one of the outstanding educational institutions for Hispanic students.

Del Rio

Del Rio, Texas, sister city of Ciudad Acuña, Mexico, combines the ambiance of Mexico with American culture to form a diversified city. Nearby, the Pecos River joins the Devil’s River and the Rio Grande to create Lake Amistad, the ninth largest of its kind in the United States with more than 850 miles of shoreline. Its canyons, cliffs, and caves provide both scenery and a place filled with history. Del Rio is the home of the Whitehead Memorial Museum with its log cabin, cultural folk art exhibit, and numerous other historical displays. A visit to Whitehead is like taking a stroll through history. Judge Roy Bean, "The Law West of the Pecos," is buried here. West of Del Rio is Seminole Canyon State Historical Park where 10,000-year-old pictographs adorn the canyon walls. Del Rio provides a perfect place for learning about life (and education) on the border, and Sul Ross State University-Rio Grande College is proud to serve this region. Students may find special sites in the region which reflect the history of frontier Texas including the burial site for Judge Roy Bean and the restoration of his courthouse as the "Law West of the Pecos" in Langtry. The rugged Seminole Canyon State Park is nearby as well. Del Rio is also home to Laughlin Air Force base, a premier pilot training facility. The Del Rio campus of Rio Grande Colleges offers opportunities for laboratory science courses in addition to the regular offerings in the degree programs. Situated in a complex of buildings, the College provides computer laboratories, learning centers, and an auditorium. The Del Rio campus houses the offices of the Chair of the Department of Humanities, Chair of Natural and Behavioral Science, Financial Aid, and the main office of Business Services.

Eagle Pass

Located on the border across from Piedras Negras, Mexico, Eagle Pass is the center of a thriving international trade community. First established as a camp in 1849, Eagle Pass has grown into a city of over 25,000 people. With a variety of shops and malls, it is the gateway to Piedras Negras’ colorful outdoor markets and handiwork of the Mexican tradition. Biculturalism flourishes in Eagle Pass, and it is common for people in Eagle Pass to speak both Spanish and English. The Eagle Pass area offers ready access to the markets of Mexico and to the recreational activities of the Kickapoo Indian Nation. In this atmosphere, Sul Ross State University Rio Grande College strives to bring together diverse cultures. The Eagle Pass campus of Rio Grande College is located on the eastern edge of the city. The campus comprises two buildings which include computer laboratories and learning centers. The Eagle Pass campus houses the central offices of Admissions, Records and Student Services. The regional Small Business Development Center has its main office on the Eagle Pass campus as well.
Uvalde
Settled in 1853, Uvalde served as a trading post for area settlers and forts along the Nueces River. Prior to Texas’ annexation, many battles were fought along the Nueces River in an attempt to settle the boundary dispute between Texas and Mexico. Turn of the century architecture is still evident in Uvalde. Nestled along tree shaded streets are many elegant old homes, dating back to the late 1890s and early 1900s. Many storied houses with long porches, balconies, and tall graceful columns preserve a testament to the past. Uvalde is also home to the Briscoe-Garner Museum depicting the contributions of these two distinguished Texans. The huge old oaks that were so numerous in the area are so loved by the city that many streets are built around the trees. Near Uvalde is Garner State Park, a recreational area famed in the state for its camping and outdoor activities. Uvalde is also the headquarters of Southwest Texas Junior College, our educational partner institution. The Uvalde campus of Rio Grande College houses the offices of the Associate Provost/Dean, Chair of the Department of Business Administration, Chair of the Department of Education, and Media/Public Relations/Outreach.

The Sul Ross State University Rio Grande College Small Business Development Center strives to support the economic development of the Middle Rio Grande region of rural Southwest Texas. The Center's mission is to act as a catalyst for business and economic development by providing a broad range of education, counseling, and technical assistance activities targeted to businesses, economic development organizations, public officials, and the community at large.

The Center conducts the SBDC program in nine counties stretching from Maverick to Dimmitt, Edwards, Kinney, La Salle, Real, Uvalde, Val Verde, and Zavala—an area of 12,000 square miles, with an estimated population of approximately 160,000 and approximately 2,700 businesses. The region is comprised of a geographically dispersed, ethnically and culturally diverse populations.

The Small Business Development Center has offices on each of the Rio Grande College campuses and in Carrizo Springs.

Admissions Policy

Sul Ross State University is committed to equal consideration of all applicants for admissions without regard to race, color, national origin, religion, sex, age or disability. Applicants will be considered for admission to the University when all the items required for admission have been filed with the Office of Admissions and Records.
