2016 FALL SEMESTER
Theater of the Big Bend's first summer show “Charlotte's Web,” a play based on the E.B. White novel, was a hit with the young crowd of Alpine. Such a heartwarming tale! It took the younger (and some older) audience members right back to being a kid and believing in things with their whole heart.

“Charlotte’s Web”

British humor is at its finest in “Spamalot,” a musical adaptation of “Monty Python and the Holy Grail.”

“Spamalot!”

So funny!

So many clubs were represented that it was hard to choose just one. Or two!

Everyone has something they love to do!
Students now have a well-lit, safe turf field where they can play and practice.

The ultimate team used the new field to host their first big bender ultimate tourney.
With Pokémon Go so popular, Sul Ross Productions decided to have an event to make Pokémon how cute are they?

Crowds came out to cheer their favorite cowboys and cowgirls at the 71st Annual Sul Ross State University National Intercollegiate Rodeo Assn. Rodeo. We're proud that Sul Ross is the birthplace of collegiate rodeo and held the first-ever college rodeo in 1949!
Many people in the Big Bend area opposed the construction of the Trans Pecos pipeline project and were joined by Native American protesters of the Dakota Access Pipeline project. The groups marched against both pipelines. The turnout was large and peaceful, but ultimately unimpactful and the project continued despite continued opposition from area residents.
Powderpuff game, contests among student clubs, whitewashing the Bar-SR-Bar, pep rally -- these are just a few of the fun events and traditions that we took part in to celebrate Homecoming.
We had the traditional lighting of the Bar-SR-Bar, and then we had the Homecoming parade. This year’s Star Wars theme was a huge hit!

The football team did just fine without the bus!

WE WON!
This was the second year that the library staff at the Wildenthal Memorial Library on campus hosted the Big Bend Comic Con. Participants enjoyed dressing in costume, playing games, viewing and purchasing original art, reading, trading and collecting comics, and having a great time.

There were even more people attending this year, so hopes are that the tradition of our own local comic con will continue.
Día De Los Muertos

This is a day where we visit our deceased relatives and respect them.

The Spanish Club builds and decorates an altar in the foyer of the UC, and members of the Sul Ross community are invited to place photos and remembrances of their loved ones no longer living.

Some students visit cemeteries, like this one in nearby Terlingua, where they pay tribute, visit with others, and tell stories and sing songs about the departed. The custom is a Hispanic tradition to honor the dead and keep their memories alive.

2017 SPRING SEMESTER
Letter Jacket Ceremony

Sul Ross State University student athletes were honored with their very own varsity letter jackets at a ceremony Feb. 19. This year was the first time in recent Sul Ross history in which jackets were awarded to more than 70 student athletes.

"Receiving a Sul Ross letter jacket brings a sense of accomplishment and pride to each individual who has earned one," said Athletic Director Bobby Mesker.

To be eligible for a letter jacket, athletes are required to have played their sport for two consecutive years. The Letterwinner Board of Directors and Coaches from Sul Ross presented the jackets to the athletes.

Highway Cleanup

Our Lobo community members really care about our land. They took it upon themselves to use their afternoon to clean up Highway 90 toward Marfa.

Cody Richardson, Adrian, and Samantha Banegas, Alpine, were named the 2017 Sul Ross State University Man and Woman of the Year at the annual Honors Convocation, held April 17 in Marshall Auditorium. Sul Ross President Dr. Bill Kibler presented the awards. The Man and Woman of the Year award is the top honor a Sul Ross senior can receive.

Richardson, who will graduate in May, is a Business Administration major, Honors Program graduate and president of the Sul Ross Ranch Horse Club. He has compiled a 3.795 grade point average through Fall Semester 2016.

Banegas, a junior Education major, is a member of Sigma Tau Delta (International English Honor Society), has been named to the Dean's List, is a marathoner, and in addition to being a full-time student, is a full-time Sul Ross employee, wife and mother.

The Man of the Year was the top honor at the annual Honors Convocation.

100 YEARS OLD!

We celebrated Sul Ross 100th birthday today! How splendid is that? It was such a fun party with friends, family, and community members!

SULLY’S Showcase

Sully’s Showcase is held twice each year. This is when we show prospective students what’s so great about being a Lobo. Each department and many student organizations are on hand during the showcase to “show and tell” what they do and answer questions.
Students close to Zuzu Verh remembered her on her birthday by drawing a chalk mural in the outdoor amphitheatre named for her.

The folks at Sully Productions always find neat things to do. This time was a Craft Night, where decorated and repurposed Mason jars.

Finals De-Stress

UGH! Finals are here already and I am stressed beyond belief. The library had a stress relief event and they brought a donkey.

I feel better now.

And the donkey was named Chewbacca.

Pool Party!

It was fun to cool off in the pool with friends!

What a great way to cool off...

Cinco de Mayo celebrates the 1862 victory of the Mexican army over France at the Battle of Puebla during the Franco-Mexican War. A relatively minor holiday in Mexico, in the United States Cinco de Mayo has evolved into a commemoration of Mexican culture and heritage, particularly in border areas like Alpine and Sul Ross.

Students, faculty and community members from nearby Presidio came to Sul Ross and put on a patriotic fiesta for us.

2016 SUL ROSS STATE UNIVERSITY LOBO VOLLEYBALL

SRSU volleyball finishes 3-25

Sul Ross’ young roster experienced some growing pains during the 2016 volleyball season posting a 3-25 overall record, 2-12 in American Southwest Conference play.

Coach DeWayne Robbins’ team included seven freshmen and eight sophomores among the 23-player unit. The Lady Lobos dropped their first seven matches before posting a 3-0 win over Incarnate College at the Austin College Invitational in early September.

Sul Ross ended its season with a 3-0 victory over Howard Payne University for their first conference win. Junior Katie Reeves (Odessa) recorded 17 kills, 31 assists and LaCroix added 165, followed by freshmen Taistica W. (Fresno) 153, Reeves 123, senior McKenna Hefley (Canyon) added 17 and Sheering 16. Thomas, an All-ASC second team selection, led with 126 digs, followed by Reeves (190), Sonnens (181) and freshman Hannah Zly (Cilento, 259). McIvor recorded a team-high 37 blocks, sophomore Denise McCluskey (Killer) added 32, followed by Ruth Larue and Settman with 17.

Sul Ross’ roster included seniors Zoe Marin (Doral), Candice Hugi (San Antonio), Rachel Rivas (San Antonio), Emily Campos (San Antonio), and Katie Reeves (Odessa). Juniors Breeann Sturges (El Paso), Jade Bates (Lubbock), Jordan King (Lubbock), Brittny Serrano (Alpine), Katie Reeves (Odessa), Emily Campos (San Antonio), and Katie Reeves (Odessa). Freshmen Bree Ann Sturges (El Paso), Jade Bates (Lubbock), Jordan King (Lubbock), Brittny Serrano (Alpine), Emily Campos (San Antonio), and Katie Reeves (Odessa). Sophomores Alex Shelton (Odessa), Vidalia Sanchez (Odessa), Alexis Robinson (Odessa), Destiny Wilson (Odessa), Athena Guadarrama (Laredo), Elizabeth Livingston (Alpine), Autumn Kilpatrick (Brownsville), and Troy Canaba. (Head Volleyball Coach).
Lady Lobos soccer team earns post-season berth

Led by transfer Lauren Elkins, the Lady Lobos earned a spot in the American Southwest Conference post-season soccer tournament in just their second year of varsity competition.

Coach Marquis Mass’ squad posted a 6-6-1 record, 4-6-1 in league play, good for seventh place. Sul Ross fell to second-seeded University of Mary Hardin-Baylor 3-1 in the opening round of the tournament.

The Lady Lobos were just one of seven home matches and tied another. Three of the year’s losses were by a single goal, while Sul Ross claimed a pair of 1-0 victories.

Jordyn Remata (El Paso) scored 16 of the team’s 29 goals during season play, including three each in wins over McMurry, LaTourneau and Louisiana College. She also scored two goals in the loss to UTD, and for the year, added four assists and was successful on two of four penalty kicks. Remata tallied the Lady Lobos’ lone goal in the tournament loss to UMBB.

Junior goalkeeper Ashley Rojas (El Paso) posted four shutouts and recorded 145 saves. Rojas, along with sophomore defender Rachel Hamilton (San Antonio) and freshman midfielder Tey Colter (El Paso) and junior midfielder Nyah Elkins (Henderson) had two goals apiece. They contributed three assists each, and Colter had two. They converted her only penalty kick.

Lady Lobos gain first-ever ASC post-season berth

Despite a trial-season coaching change and late-season losing skid, the Lady Lobos earned their first Southwest Athletic Conference tournament appearance.

Sul Ross finished the year 11-16, scoring 770-113 in tournament play. The Lady Lobos hosted their final game with victories over West Texas A&M, Abilene Christian and Metro Baptist.

Led by Claire Caroll, who assumed duties after Gregg Johnson's resignation, Sul Ross finished 7-9 in the ASC West Division. They ended a 16-game winning streak against the Bobcats. This year's win will be the third consecutive trip to the NCAA tournament.

Senior Shannon Villareal's free throw attempt and senior Ashley Ousley's 3-point shot in overtime were the deciding factors in the Lady Lobos' 70-71 upset of the Bobcats in the final game.

Lobos miss post-season tournay, finish 14-26 in 2017 season

Hardin-Simmons spotted Sal Menz, but for a post-season baseball tournament berth, winning all three games in the 2017 season-opening series. Coach Bobby Maker's Lobos ended 3-26, 5-17 in American Southwest Conference play.

Makayla's two-run batted-in single in the top of the seventh inning with the base-opened series was over for this year into University of the Guam vs. Texas Hardin-Simmons by a single game for the final tournament berth. HSU won its first game 13-7, then edged the Lobos 2-1 and 3-0 to gain the sweep.

Ryan Almager (Markham) earned a two-hitter, leading the team in batting (.36), on-base percentage (.429), slugging percentage (.429), RBIs (17), doubles (11) and runs scored (12). He tied Chris York (Lubbock, 301) for a team-leading six home runs.

Josia Jenkins (Tembah, 357), Phillip Russell (Austin, 331), Wesley Moss (San Antonio, 316), Binsley Gokone (Spring, 315) and Johnny Campos (78), 79, all batted over .300 as the Lobos posted a 307 team mark. Campos scored a team-best 36 runs and ended his Lobos career with over 200 hits. His 260th safety was a home run at New Mexico State.

Cody Remort (Liberty Hills) led the pitchers with a 4-5 mark over and L.30 earned run average, two complete games and the team's lone shutout. Atosha Morier (Andrews) tossed a 4-4 record, mostly in relief, with one of the team's two saves.

Sul Ross softball season enjoyed a decisive upward turn in 2017, including establishment of a new single-season victory total. Despite a strenuous schedule that featured four wins in the American Southwest Conference’s first- and second-place contests, Coach Tammy Caruso’s Lady Lobos enjoyed the year with a 12-37 overall record, 0-22 in ASC action. The win total nearly doubled from Caruso’s first season (7-31, 5-15 in 2016). Sul Ross was in contention for post-season play until the season’s final week.

The Lady Lobos won four ASC titles in 2017, including 2-2 at Lobo Field against both University of the Ozarks and LeTourneau, and 1-1 at Howard Payne and Abilene. Descare Hernandez (13-10) paced the team in most offensive categories, hitting .347 with 41 hits, 11 doubles and 41 runs batted in. Caruso Conger (12-10) finished .329 and scored 31 runs, while Tnay Gonzalez (7-12, 1-7) contributed a team-best four RBI and shared second place with Javina Conger (7-13). Sul Ross was 1-7 in ASC play in 2016. Sul Ross is in contention for post-season play until the season’s final week.

For the second consecutive year, the Sul Ross State women’s relay team and all-arounder long jumper Justannie Stagg (Bothwell) qualified for the NCAA Division II Outdoor Track and Field Championships. The 2017 meet was held in Columbus, Ohio and hosted by Mount Union University.

Stagg placed fourth nationally in the long jump, and earned First Team All-America honors. She was one of only five women to clear 5.90 meters and placed third in the 100 meters and 200 meters with record-setting and award-winning efforts, respectively. In addition, she earned 10th place in the 4x100 relay. Burren Sokol (Gonza) won the gold medal in the discus. Joseph Parker (Bryan) finished second in the 1500 meters and fourth in the 5000, while Snyder and Jones were second and third in the 200. Armando Ruiz (Rio Hondo) placed third in the javelin.

Stagg, the American Southwest Conference 2017 Male Track and Field Athlete of the Year, placed third in the indoor men’s 60 meters. The relay team qualified for the national meet a second time and finished 10th at the NCAA A&M. They placed third in the 4x100 meters and second in the 4x400. Justannie Stagg (Bothwell) made the 4x100 meter relay finals.

In women’s competition, Kristin Hayes (Bryan) won her second straight 400 meter title and placed fifth in the 200. Lauren (Dalton) with the 100 meter hurdles and LeAnna Haas (Richmond) placed second. Rachel Hines (Henderson) was awarded Second Team All-American for her efforts in the 100 meters and second in the 200.
