

Why can't I see my course on Blackboard?

Your Professor determines when you can see your Blackboard course. Some Professors open their Blackboard course early, some late, and some do not use Blackboard at all.

Check with your professor on their intentions regarding the use of Blackboard for your course. Help Desk and Blackboard support cannot open a course without permission from the Professor.