

Sul Ross State University
Student Government Association
Constitution & Bylaws
Revised Fall 2013

PREAMBLE

We, the student body of Sul Ross State University, deriving our authority from the Texas State University Board of Regents and our governance from this Constitution, do hereby establish the Student Government Association of Sul Ross State University which shall act on behalf of the student body by providing leadership, guidance, and oversight to all Student Clubs and assuring timely response to issues raised by the student body.

ARTICLE I. NAME

The name of this organization shall be the Student Government Association of the Alpine campus of Sul Ross State University, herein referred to as the Student Government Association.

ARTICLE II. MEMBERSHIP

The Student Government Association non-voting members shall consist of all full and part-time students who have paid the appropriate student service fees for that semester and are not full time employees of the University. Student Government Association voting members will consist of all elected and appointed positions recognized by the Student Government Associations Constitution and By-laws.

ARTICLE III. PURPOSE

The primary purpose of this organization, as a representative student government, is to act as a liaison to the faculty, administration, and staff on behalf of the student body. Our responsibility is to listen and, when appropriate, act upon the suggestions and concerns expressed by the student body, to foster recognition of student rights and the university responsibilities to the students, to act in the students' best interests when participating in the development of university policy and sitting on university committees, and to demonstrate leadership, honestly, loyalty, and integrity by our actions.

More specifically, our responsibilities are: To represent the student body on university committees and when requested, at university events and programs; to encourage activities of a social, cultural and civic nature to develop and maintain a university and community spirit; to allocate and oversee Student Activities funds that are distributed to clubs that promote the interests of the student body.

- A. One representative from each academic department (as defined by the Vice President for Academic Affairs as having 14 separate departments) and one for Undecided Majors.
- B. Four seats shall be filled at large.
- C. Two seats each shall be filled by members of the Freshman, Sophomore, Junior, and Senior classes and one seat filled by a Graduate Student.

Section 4. Candidates for the office of Senator must have an overall grade point average of at least 2.0 for undergraduates, and 3.0 for graduates. In the case of Freshman candidates, a minimum high school grade point average of 2.0 shall be required. No candidate shall be on academic or disciplinary probation while seeking or holding office.

Section 5. The tenure of office for Senators shall commence at the beginning of the Fall semester in which they are elected and terminate at the end of the following Spring semester.

Section 6. In cases of vacancies in the Congress, except where otherwise noted in the Constitution, the Senator who is vacating his or her position shall nominate a student from among his/her constituency to fill the position. In the event the outgoing Senator does not nominate a student, the President may nominate a student to fill the position. This student must meet all Congress requirements and must be approved by a two-thirds vote of the Members of Congress present and voting. Upon approval by the Congress, the student shall serve until the next regular election, at which time the position shall be placed on the ballot. Any candidate elected during such an election shall serve until the next general Fall election.

Section 7. A Student Senator may be recalled by a petition of 30% of the Senator's constituency. If the recall is passed by a majority of the constituency voting in a recall election, a special election shall be held to fill the position. When a member of the Executive Committee is recalled, that individual is still allowed to maintain active participation as a Member of Congress, provided that a seat is available for that individual to occupy.

Section 8. One Goal of the Student Government Association is to give the students at Sul Ross State University true representation in Congress. This representation is established by allowing all registered student organizations on campus one representative seat in Congress. These new members of Congress shall be referred to as Representatives, and shall retain all rights and privileges presently held by members of Senate.

Section 9. Student Government Association Representatives shall be elected as follows:

Revised August 2015

- A. It will be the responsibility of each individual organization to hold an internal election process.
- B. It will be the responsibility of each individual existing organization to notify either the Parliamentarian or the Dean of Student Life of a Representative's nomination for confirmation of eligibility before the first congressional meeting of the semester.
- C. In the case of a new or returning dormant organization that is officially recognized after the first congressional meeting of the semester, it will be the responsibility of that organization to notify the Parliamentarian or the Dean of Student Life before the next congressional meeting after being approved by Congress.
- D. If an organization fails to contact the Parliamentarian or the Dean of Student Life, by the applicable dates listed in Sections 9 B and 9 C, it will lose its representative seat in Congress for the regular semester.
- E. Upon approval of eligibility by the Dean of Student Life and The Parliamentarian, the Representative-elect from each individual organization will acquire a seat in Congress.

Section 10. An organization will be permitted only one replacement of a representative for a particular seat per regular semester. Once an organization has replaced its representative seat one time and loses a second representative, that organization will lose that particular seat in Congress for the remainder of the Semester.

Section 11. An organization will be allowed to regain its representative seat in Congress at the beginning of the next regular semester.

Section 12. A representative may not relinquish his or her seat for the sole purpose of becoming a Senator.

Section 13. A vacancy by a representative will not count for or against quorum.

- A. Participate in the recognition of new campus organizations.
- B. Formulate procedures and regulations and have a voice in the allocation of student service fees, subject to State law.
- C. Take all action within the limits of the Constitution and Bylaws which shall be necessary and proper.
- D. The Members of Congress may call special sessions of the Congress by a signed petition of 50% or more of the Members of Congress. The special session must be called by the President of the Student Government Association within two class days upon delivery of the petition unless otherwise stated in the petition, provided the Members of Congress receive actual notice of the petition.

Section 15. The committee structure of the Congress shall be established as herein provided:

- A. The standing committees of the Student Congress and their areas of responsibility shall include (but not be limited to):
 - 1. Election Committee, which shall be responsible for all Student Government Association elections, including officer, Student Congress, and Homecoming elections.
 - 2. Academic Affairs Committee, which shall be responsible for communication with college councils, scholastic regulations, academic innovation, and library facilities.
 - 3. Student Life Committee, which shall be responsible for areas including student service, service projects, student concerns pertaining to student life, and the Health Center.
 - 4. Internal Policy Committee, which shall have the responsibility for Congress rules and election rules, and shall help formulate University rules and regulations.
 - 5. Public Relations Committee, which shall have the responsibility for promoting awareness of the Student Government Association and its goals to the student body, including administering any public opinion polls requested by the Congress. The Public Relations Committee shall also be responsible for recording all activities hosted by SGA, and contacting campus media and outside media when appropriate and approved by the Student Government President or Congress.
- B. The Congress shall have the authority to establish, by a two-thirds vote of its membership present and voting, such standing committees as are needed to perform its necessary and proper functions.

Revised August 2015

- C. The Congress shall have the authority to establish, by majority vote of members present and voting, such special committees as are needed to perform its necessary and proper functions.
- D. The chairpersons of the standing committees shall be Members of Congress who are appointed by the Student Government Association President.
- E. Committee and subcommittee membership shall be open to Student Government Association members who are duly appointed except where otherwise noted in this Constitution.
- F. The committee chairperson may establish such subcommittees as deemed necessary and appoint the subcommittee chairperson, except where otherwise noted in the Constitution.

Section 16. One half plus one of the voting members of the Congress shall be a quorum. No business shall be transacted without the presence of a quorum. All meetings of the Student Congress shall be open to the public unless the Congress enters into executive session by a two-thirds vote of the Congress members present and voting.

Section 17. A Member of Congress shall be removed from office after three (3) unexcused absences, or four (4) excused absences, per semester from the regular Congress meetings. For an absence to be excused, the Member of Congress must contact the Student Government Association, by way of telephone, note, or electronic mail, before the meeting to be missed. Removal from office is to be finalized by a 2/3 majority vote from the total members of Congress present and voting.

Section 18. If either a Senator or a Representative makes a request for a leave of absence, he or she must complete the following procedures:

- A. Assure that a detailed written note is on file with the Executive Secretary three (3) class days prior to addressing Congress.
- B. Secure from Congress his or her leave of absence and approval by a 2/3 majority vote of the members present and voting.
- C. The leave of absence can be for no longer than three (3) meetings and no shorter than two (2) meetings, not to include special sessions of Congress.
- D. In circumstances regarding conflicts of interest dealing with an election protest, the leave of absence will last the duration of the review of the protest.

ARTICLE VII. THE JUDICIAL BRANCH

Section 1. The Judicial Branch of the Student Government Association shall be called the Student Court.

Section 2. All judicial authority of the Student Government Association shall be vested in the Court.

Section 3. The Court shall be comprised of one graduate student, one senior, one junior, one sophomore, and one freshman. A Chief Justice, who shall preside over the meetings of the Court, shall be appointed by the President from the graduate or senior positions from among the justices. The Justices shall be appointed by the President of the Student Government Association and approved with the advice and consent of two-thirds of the Congress members present and voting.

Section 4. Members of the Court shall be enrolled full time at the time of appointment. Each must have been a full-time student at SRSU for at least two (2) long semesters, with the exception of the Freshman member. Each Justice must have an overall GPA of 2.0 for undergraduates and 3.0 for graduates. These qualifications must be maintained during the term of office.
