Mandatory Trainings:

Child Protection Training

This training is provided and intended for use by Sul Ross State University employees/volunteers and personnel of thirdparty camps using Sul Ross State University property for camps and programs for minors. It is derived from Texas State Statutes which include Senate Bill 1414 as well as policies found within Sul Ross State University and the Texas State University System.

Each employee of a state agency shall complete the required training program within 30 days after the original date of hire and complete supplemental training every two years.

To Access the training log into your SRSU Blackboard account and choose Human Resources Training under "My Organizations".
