

Unusual Enrollment History

Student Name: _____ A#: _____

After reviewing your FAFSA, additional documentation is required to continue with the financial aid process. Unusual enrollment patterns have been indicated and will require additional verification. Many students with this pattern have legitimate reasons. However, before a student can become eligible for financial aid this process must be completed. In order to resolve this issue, you must complete this form, and provide official transcripts for all colleges attend within the last four years.
