Quality Matters (QM) Update

Brown Bag

February 2024

NEW: Registration Process for APPQMR

- In the past, you self-registered by going to QM Website
  - This is no longer the process

- From now on, you will email Jennifer Haan to register

- If you accidentally self-register, we will contact you and cancel that registration

Self-Review of Online Course

- Still available for those who already completed the APPQMR training

- Upon completion of the assignments, your instructor will then process the paperwork so you can receive your stipend.

- If you are interested, please contact Jennifer Haan

Online and Distance Education Committee (ODE) Update

Brown Bag

February 2024

Faculty and Staff Development and Support

- Best Practices for Online Teaching (all modalities, Graduate and Undergraduate Programs)

- Guest Presenter/Workshop Series

- Collaboration with OIT (Office 365)

- Centralized resource listing/hub

SRSU Quality Assurance for Online Courses and Programs

- Course review and certification
  - Peer-led process

- Alignment with Outstanding Online Educator Award

- Differentiation based on discipline, modality and course level

- Faculty stipends/incentives

Outstanding Online Educator Award

- Purpose
- Criteria
- Selection Process

ODE Handbook Update

- Directory of Programs
- Program Attributes
- Enrollment
- Learning modalities
- Documentation for SACS

Online Core Curriculum and Dual Credit

- Creating online core curriculum
- Utilizing Blackboard features to enhance design of dual credit courses
- Best teaching practices for dual credit-synchronous and asynchronous
- Support of adjunct instructors

Questions?
Comments?

Dr. Jennifer Haan

Director, OPDE

jennifer.haan@sulross.edu

575-636-7237